About Virginia Systems

Founded as a consulting firm in 1984, Virginia Systems has been a leader in text retrieval, document imaging, and index generation software for both the MacOS, Windows, and the Internet since 1986. Besides our shrink-wrapped software and consulting services, we also offer custom software development for the Macintosh and Windows. Our diverse customer base includes federal, state and local governments and agencies, attorneys, universities, resume service providers, pharmaceutical, computer, publishing, and chemical companies, and other Fortune 500 firms.
